£500,000

Beautifully restored 19th century cottage dating from 1880, extended in the 1980s. Extensively refurbished internally and more recently externally in 2020 to include traditional Lincolnshire red pantile roofing, exposed original stonework with lime mortar, cream render to the extended areas and cream heritage style double glazed windows.

Internally, the property includes a wealth of character features including exposed beams, original stonework, reclaimed stripped pine doors, wood burning stove, reclaimed Victorian fire surround and Victorian style tiles to entrances. It benefits from oil fired central heating throughout. Internally, the accommodation comprises Two Entrance Halls, Living Room, Dining Room, Kitchen and Sun Lounge. To the First Floor there are Three Bedrooms, En-suite facilities to Bedroom 1 and a Family Bathroom.

Externally the front includes a large drive with parking for up to 4 cars, stone wall frontage, wildflower area, easily maintained gravel gardens including ornamental grasses and lavender. The secluded south-facing rear mature garden includes an ornamental pond, beautiful Himalayan cedar, is fully enclosed and has a native hedge to the southwest.
