Situated upon a generous corner plot on the corner of Malton Road and Crossgate Lane, Cheric is the last house on the left-hand side as you leave Pickering on the Malton Road, just before the Mickle Hill development. The property comprises a surprisingly substantial detached house, which provides over 2,000 square feet of versatile and well-proportioned accommodation. The property has been subject to some recent improvements, including an updated heating system and landscaping to create a large driveway.

The accommodation is well presented throughout and provides the following. Entrance hall, study, large breakfast kitchen with a modern range of units, rear hall with a cloakroom and utility area. Large dual aspect sitting room, dining room and a south facing conservatory with doors which lead out into the garden. Upstairs is a large main bedroom with south facing balcony and en-suite shower room. There are a further three double bedrooms and house bathroom. The property is largely Upvc double glazed throughout and has gas fired central heating.

There is a large driveway to the rear with access off Crossgate Lane which provides a good level of off street parking, alongside a car port and an integral single garage. The gardens lie to three sides and are sheltered and private set behind mature hedges and being largely laid to lawn are easy to maintain.

Pickering is a bustling market town, famous for its castle and steam railway, and located on the southern boundary of the North York Moors National Park and close to the heritage coastline. The town offers a wide range of amenities, including primary and secondary school, sports centre, restaurants, public houses and an array of retailers.
