ABOUT THE HOME

The modern fitted kitchen is finished to a high specification, with sleek cabinetry, integrated appliances and generous worktop space, making it both practical and stylish. The sleeping area is well defined and benefits from extensive built-in wardrobes and clever storage solutions, providing excellent functionality while maintaining a spacious feel. A contemporary bathroom completes the apartment, featuring a walk-in shower, modern sanitaryware, heated towel rail and stylish tiled finishes.

The property is ideally positioned for transport, with Clapham Junction Station nearby providing National Rail services across London and excellent connections to central London and beyond. Clapham Common and Clapham South Underground Stations are also within easy reach, offering Northern Line services towards the City and West End.
