

Occupation Lane, SE18

£650,000

The heart of the home is a superb open plan kitchen, dining and living space, ideal for modern living and entertaining. It features a handcrafted reclaimed wood kitchen with quartz worktops, a breakfast bar and doors opening onto the courtyard garden, creating a bright and sociable space. There are two generous double bedrooms, a stylish family bathroom and spacious reception. An insulated loft provides excellent storage with potential for conversion, subject to the necessary consents. Outside, the mature walled garden offers a private retreat, while the substantial detached garage with an inspection pit provides secure parking, workshop space or additional storage behind gated access. A beautifully presented character home in a highly convenient location.
