DESCRIPTION

A Grade II listed home of immense charm and character, ideally situated within the conservation area of this highly sought-after East Suffolk market town, just a short stroll from the High Street and railway station.

Suffolk longhouse dating back to the beginning of the 18th century or possibly earlier, the property forms an impressive single residence. Constructed of painted brick beneath a slate roof to the front and pantiles to the rear, with traditional brick stacks, it offers a wonderful blend of historic elegance and practical living.

Set back from the road behind a low brick wall, the house is approached via a paved front garden. The principal entrance opens into a welcoming hall with striking checkerboard tiled flooring, leading through to the main reception rooms.

The sitting room is a particularly elegant space, featuring exposed timbers, a tiled floor, and a recessed inglenook fireplace with timber bressummer. A graceful curved staircase rises from here to the first-floor landing, while leaded light windows and a glazed door provide access to the enclosed rear garden. A lobby off the sitting room offers an additional entrance to the front and leads to a further reception room.

The spacious kitchen/dining room is full of character, with exposed timber flooring, a recessed fireplace, and views over the street. The kitchen is fitted with a range of base and wall units, an electric oven and hob, and a central island. Beyond lies a large utility room with further storage and direct access to the garden, along with a ground floor bathroom.

The first floor is accessed via both the main staircase and a secondary staircase from the kitchen, adding to the home's period charm. There are four well-proportioned bedrooms, including an elegant principal bedroom with a stone fireplace and access to its own bathroom, with a separate WC located off the landing. An enclosed staircase from the rear bedroom leads to a large attic.

Outside, a driveway provides off-road parking and leads to a timber-boarded garage. The rear garden is predominantly laid to lawn and enjoys a south-westerly aspect, with a variety of seating areas and well-stocked borders filled with flowering plants—creating a delightful and private outdoor space.
