Trinity Road | Weymouth
Dorset | DT4 8TJ
Asking Price £395,000

This first floor character apartment sits proudly on Weymouth's famous Harbourfront and would make an ideal downsize/second home. Previously known as 'Winterslow House' and with a plaque on the building frontage referring to the ownership by a Ralph Allen in the 18th century, this building is steeped in history. Enjoying far-reaching views over the harbour from the principle rooms, with charming character features and elegant modern living. Features include an inviting bay window from which to sit and enjoy the views, sash windows (with acoustic glass/discreet secondary glazing), parquet flooring to the main living area, modern kitchen, two double bedrooms (both with built-in wardrobes), en-suite to the master bedroom and full secondary bathroom. To the rear of the development and accessed via Franchise Street is the rarity of an allocated off-road parking space.
