Why you'll like it

Offered for sale with no onward chain, this four-bedroom semi-detached home on Privet Drive pairs a generous rear lounge with a large conservatory overlooking an enclosed garden. A block-paved driveway and single garage provide off-street parking and useful storage.

The front-facing kitchen is fitted with a range of wall and base units, contrasting worktops and a tiled splashback. It includes a built-in oven and gas hob, with a stainless-steel sink beneath the front windows and space for freestanding appliances. A separate downstairs WC serves the ground floor.

Across the rear of the house, the lounge has a feature fireplace with a timber surround and space for both a seating area and a reading or music corner. Glazed double doors lead into the conservatory, which is currently arranged as a dining room. Windows along the rear give it a garden outlook, and doors open outside, making it a practical space for family meals and entertaining.

On the first floor are four bedrooms, one currently used as a music room. It could also serve as a home office, guest room or additional bedroom. The family bathroom has a bath with an over-bath shower and glass screen, a pedestal wash basin and WC.

The rear garden is enclosed by stone walls and timber fencing. Stone steps lead up to a lawn and a separate decked seating area, giving the garden distinct spaces for play and outdoor dining. At the front, steps lead from the driveway to the entrance.

Privet Drive sits on the eastern side of Oakworth, a Worth Valley village west of Keighley. The village is home to Oakworth Primary School and Holden Park, known for its historic rockeries and grottoes. Local footpaths lead into the surrounding countryside, while nearby Haworth offers a change of scene for a day out. Oakworth's station is part of the Keighley & Worth Valley heritage railway; for everyday rail travel, Keighley station offers services towards Leeds, Bradford and Skipton
