Denise White Agent Comments

Situated in a highly sought-after position within the popular West End of the market town of Leek, this traditional terraced home offers deceptively spacious and beautifully presented accommodation throughout. Conveniently located within walking distance of a wide range of local amenities including shops, hairdressers, gyms and the post office, with Leek town centre and its extensive amenities just a short distance further, the property is ideally placed for modern day living.

Upon entering, a welcoming entrance hallway leads through to the dining room, positioned to the front aspect and providing an excellent space for both everyday dining and entertaining guests. To the rear, the comfortable lounge enjoys a cosy atmosphere and flows seamlessly into the kitchen, which is fitted with a modern range of units incorporating integrated appliances and ample worktop space.

Beyond the kitchen is a useful rear hall providing access to the enclosed rear yard and the ground floor bathroom, which is conveniently positioned to the rear of the property.

To the first floor, there are two generously proportioned double bedrooms, both offering excellent levels of space and natural light.

Externally, the enclosed rear yard provides a private and low-maintenance outdoor space, perfect for enjoying a morning coffee in the sunshine, alfresco dining, or simply relaxing outdoors.

An excellent opportunity for first-time buyers looking to take their first step onto the property ladder, this charming home would also appeal to couples, those seeking to downsize, and investors alike.

Location

Known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.
