Externally, the home truly stands out. A rear patio provides an ideal spot to unwind in the evening sun. The garden is further enhanced by a recently installed side fence and gated access, adding both privacy and practicality.

To the front, the property benefits from a generous driveway and garden, offering potential to increase private parking if desired, and creating an attractive approach. The 16ft garage provides excellent storage and, subject to the usual consents, offers superb scope for conversion into an additional reception room or fourth bedroom, an opportunity already realised by several neighbouring homes.

Stepping inside, a welcoming entrance hallway provides access to a superb 21ft living and dining area. This spacious room is filled with natural light thanks to its dual aspect outlook and features double doors that open directly onto the rear patio, perfect for indoor outdoor living and entertaining.

The contemporary kitchen is both stylish and functional, offering generous cupboard space and a practical layout. An excellent under-stair storage cupboard enhances the usability of the ground floor.

The first floor offers well proportioned accommodation, including two comfortable double bedrooms and a versatile third bedroom, all complemented by a spacious and modern family bath room.

Further benefits include a sizeable loft space providing additional storage potential, full double glazing throughout, gas central heating, and an efficient combination boiler
