A true hidden gem in the heart of Stonesfield, Sanders House is a unique, award winning conversion of a post modern style classical villa and is now made up of just 8 individual apartments.

This delightful two bedroom ground floor apartment offers well proportioned, open plan living accommodation with the added benefits of private entrance and a terrace. The neutral colour palette allows for an abundance of natural light to flow throughout the generously sized sitting room and integrated kitchen/dining area to create a tranquil and contemporary feel. French doors allow direct access to the sunny private terrace area and communal garden. There are also two well presented bedrooms and a modern shower room which is accessed via the living area.

In addition to the property's private patio, there are also impressive communal gardens to the rear of the building in addition to allocated parking. Viewings highly recommended.

Share of Freehold. Current Service Charge £1794.12 per year.
