Ryan Court White Cliff Mill Street
Blandford Forum

Property Description

Blandford Forum is a historic market town in Dorset with Anglo-Saxon origins on the River Stour. After the Great Fire of 1731 destroyed most of the town, it was reconstruction, resulting in a cohesive and well-preserved Georgian townscape. The town prospered through its markets and industries like brewing and stagecoach traffic. Today, Blandford Forum is known for its elegant architecture, historic Market Place, and local museums

Ryan Court is a retirement complex located in the centre of Blandford Forum, offering flats for residents who are typically over 55 or 60. The complex was built in the late 1980s and is located a short walk of the town centre and shops.
