A rare opportunity to acquire a truly substantial and deceptively spacious period residence occupying an elevated position on sought-after North Furzeham Road, with commanding, uninterrupted views across Brixham Harbour, the Breakwater, and the wider expanse of Tor Bay.

Currently arranged as two self-contained dwellings – Four Seas and Four Decks – this unique property has been thoughtfully configured to operate independently as successful holiday lets, while still retaining the structure and layout to allow for straightforward reversion to an impressive single family home, if desired.

This highly flexible home is perfectly suited to extended family living, continued investment, or full reconfiguration, and enjoys some of the most exceptional sea and harbour views available in Brixham. To the rear, two private, low-maintenance patio terraces have been recently upgraded (April 2026) with high-specification glass balustrading, creating a sleek, contemporary finish that significantly enhances both the outlook and overall ambience. These beautifully improved outdoor spaces are perfectly positioned to maximise the stunning coastal panorama, ideal for al fresco dining or simply relaxing while watching the ever-changing marine scene.

This exceptional property presents a rare chance to secure a versatile and sizeable home in one of South Devon's most desirable harbourside locations. Whether retained as a successful investment, adapted for extended family occupation, or transformed into a magnificent single residence, the potential here is considerable.

Importantly, the existing layout also offers clear scope for reconfiguration into a substantial private dwelling of at least four bedrooms. For example, the current Four Seas lounge could be repurposed as an en-suite bedroom, with the kitchen reimagined as a generous bathroom, demonstrating the versatility of the accommodation without being overly prescriptive.

Beneath the upper patio, there is a large storage room, offering excellent scope for use as a garden room or outdoor kitchen if required. The property benefits from electric heating throughout and UPVC double glazing. While there is no allocated parking, ample on-street parking is readily available nearby.
