This well-presented two-bedroom mid-terrace property offers neutral, stylish interiors arranged over three floors and is ideally positioned on the outskirts of the town centre, within comfortable walking distance of a wide range of local shops and amenities.

Internally, the accommodation begins with a well-proportioned dining room to the front of the home, providing an inviting space for everyday dining. To the first floor, there are two good-sized bedrooms, with the principal bedroom located to the front of the property. Both bedrooms are served by a well-appointed, neutral bathroom.

A further benefit is the useful cellar, which is carpeted and lends itself perfectly to use as a home office, hobby room or additional storage space.

Overall, this is an attractive and versatile home that would appeal to first-time buyers, downsizers or investors alike.

Location

Known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.
