Location

Set amidst the tranquil countryside on the Norfolk/Suffolk border, Farm Cottage enjoys a peaceful position in Heckfield Green, a small rural hamlet forming part of the sought-after village of Hoxne. The village itself offers a friendly community, with essentials such as a primary school and local pub. A wider range of amenities can be found in the nearby towns of Eye, Diss and Harleston, including independent shops, cafés, and well-regarded food specialists such as local bakers and butchers. Diss also offers a mainline railway station with regular services to London Liverpool Street (90 mins), making this an excellent option for those needing to travel further afield. The area is well connected by road, with easy access to the A143, A140 and A1066, placing Norwich, Ipswich and Bury St Edmunds all within reach.

Property

Farm Cottage is a charming, Grade II Listed detached home which dates back to the early 17th Century. With its traditional timber frame, attractive rendered elevations, and Norfolk reed thatched roof, it offers all the hallmarks of a classic period home. Lovingly cared for and extended over time, the property blends character and comfort, retaining original features such as exposed timbers, mullioned windows, pamment floors, an open fireplace, and a historic bread oven. The kitchen is well-appointed with bespoke timber base units, a mix of granite and wood worktops, a built-in dishwasher, LPG range cooker, and double sink. The main house provides generous and flexible accommodation, including an entrance hall, sitting room, dining room, study, kitchen, cloakroom, three bedrooms and two bathrooms (including one en suite).

Across the courtyard, a separate annexe sits above the detached garage and cart lodge. This versatile space includes a utility area, cloakroom, shower room/bedroom, and a further studio/bedroom—perfect for guests, working from home, or as a creative retreat. A second Grade II Listed outbuilding adds further potential, currently used as a workshop/office and wood store but could be utilised differently should someone wish.

Outside

The property is approached via a shared gravel driveway leading to ample private parking in front of the double garage and open-fronted cart lodge. The established gardens wrap around the house, offering a mix of lawn, mature hedging, planted beds and borders, and a peaceful sense of seclusion. To the rear is a south-facing slate terrace, ideal for outdoor dining or relaxing in the sun, while a further lawned area to the west is dotted with fruit trees. A separate tool store is also in place for practical storage. In total, the grounds extend to around 0.3 acres, offering both privacy and a manageable outdoor space to enjoy year-round.
