Mounts Bay House and attached business premises,

- EXCELLENT BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY
- ADJACENT THREE BEDROOM HOUSE
- BUSTLING VILLAGE LOCATION
- COUNCIL TAX C
- EPC - HOUSE E54 BUSINESS C67
- FREEHOLD

Situated in the heart of the highly regarded coastal village of Mullion, this unique freehold opportunity offers a rare combination of residential and commercial potential in a sought-after location on the beautiful Lizard Peninsula.

Formerly home to the well-known "The Galleon" fish and chip shop, the property comprises a characterful three-bedroom cottage together with an attached commercial premises, offering exciting scope for a variety of future uses, subject to any necessary planning permissions and consents.

The cottage itself now requires renovation and modernisation but presents a wonderful opportunity for buyers to create a lovely family home tailored to their own tastes and requirements. Alongside this, the former business unit offers excellent flexibility, whether for commercial use, a lifestyle venture, workshop, studio or potential mixed investment opportunity.

Occupying a prominent position within this bustling village, the property benefits from strong year-round footfall from both locals and the many visitors drawn to this spectacular stretch of Cornish coastline.

The surrounding area is renowned for its stunning beaches, hidden coves and access to the South West Coast Path, while nearby holiday parks, campsites and holiday accommodation help support a thriving local tourism economy.
