General Remarks

Finished with impeccable detailing and recently extended, this super specification four bedroom and two bathroom detached family home is situated within a cul-de-sac in the sought-after area of Acton on the Chester side of the City. The property features a superbly fitted open-plan kitchen, breakfast room and dining space with useful utility off. The reception hall is bright and has a re-fitted cloakroom off. The living room features an acoustic mounting for the TV, which incorporates a wide focal point living flame effect fire below. On the first floor the detailing continues to the four bedrooms, the four-piece bathroom and the master en-suite. Oak finished doors, modern upright radiators, chrome power-points and light switches and fitted modern window blinds feature throughout. There is ample parking to a garage and a low maintenance garden. Viewing a must.
