Flat 19 Tabernacle Chapel is a spacious two bedroom property located in Tabernacle Chapel on Garth Road. The spacious and bright living room has been fully furnished with two two-seater sofas, a coffee table, and a dining room table with chairs. The kitchen has been fitted with plenty of surface and cupboard space for all of the tenants in the flat. A washing machine has also been fitted in the kitchen, along with a fridge/freezer and an electric hob and oven. The bathroom in the property has been fitted with a toilet, sink, and shower. Both of the bedrooms have been furnished with a chest of drawers, bed, and study desk with chair. There is no gas in the building and a smart meter has been installed for the electricity payments. There is also a large car park towards the rear of the property for students who are lucky enough to have their own vehicle. Conveniently located near the city centre and across the road to one of Bangor's major supermarkets, this property is in an ideal location.
