Station Road, Yoxford

An Elegant former farm house of immense charm and character at the edge of the village of Yoxford. Often referred to as "The Garden of Suffolk", the pretty village of Yoxford lies just off the A12 Great Yarmouth to London Road, and was in the 19th Century a coaching post on the London turnpike. Today Yoxford is a much sought after and well served typically Suffolk village centring around its fine parish church of St Peters with its grand tower and spire. The village has the old established Horner's grocer, public houses, restaurants, antique shops, doctors surgery and school and is well served by public transport. The nearby railway halt at Darsham lying on the East Suffolk line gives regular services to Ipswich and London Liverpool Street.

DESCRIPTION

Believed to date back to around 1592, York's Tenement is a substantial and beautifully preserved Grade II listed farmhouse, set within an acres of enchanting gardens overlooking neighbouring water meadow of the river Minsmeare. Located in a popular East Suffolk village and within easy reach of the Suffolk Heritage Coast, the property offers a rare opportunity to enjoy a quintessential country lifestyle.

Rich in history and character, the house extends to over 2,000 sq ft of accommodation arranged across three floors, showcasing a wealth of original features including exposed beams, timbers and impressive inglenook fireplaces. Although now forming part of a sympathetically divided farmhouse, the integrity and charm of the original home remain wonderfully intact.

The accommodation is both versatile and inviting. A welcoming hall leads through to the heart of the home — a spacious kitchen and sitting room, where a striking inglenook fireplace with open fire creates a cosy focal point, complemented by a classic cream electric Aga and ample space for dining and entertaining. Two further reception rooms provide flexibility, including a delightful garden room with doors opening onto the grounds, and a dual-aspect study, also featuring an inglenook fireplace. A useful pantry/utility room and cloakroom complete the ground floor.

On the first floor are three generous double bedrooms, including a principal suite with en suite facilities, while another benefits from a walk-in dressing room. Two family bathrooms serve this level, both enjoying picturesque views across the surrounding gardens. The second floor provides a further bedroom along with additional storage space, ideal for guests or flexible use.

Outside, the property is approached via a gravel driveway offering ample parking and turning space. The formal gardens surrounding the house extend to around an acre, mainly laid to lawn and bordered by hedging, with mature trees creating a peaceful and private environment. A terrace provides the perfect spot for outdoor dining and enjoying the far-reaching views.

York's Tenement offers a unique blend of historic charm, generous accommodation and exceptional grounds, all set within a highly desirable location close to the Suffolk coast.

ADDITIONAL LAND

Adjoining the property is a further area approximately 15 acres of water meadow and pasture which are available for sale subject to negotiation.
