SITUATION

The property occupies an enviable location, situated down a private lane (with 3 further properties), yet being within the heart of the picturesque Dartmoor village of Throwleigh. The village itself has an historic 15th century church, whilst in the nearby hamlet of Wonson, there is the well known local inn, the Northmore Arms and Village Hall. From the village there are many footpaths leading into the surrounding countryside and woodlands and up onto the high moor with many opportunities for riding, walking and outdoor pursuits. The popular Dartmoor town of Chagford is some three miles away offering a good range of day to day and specialised independent shops, as well as a primary school, Montessori nursery, public houses and hotel, a health clinic, dentist and library. The town of Okehampton offers a wider range of shops, services, education and recreational facilities. From Throwleigh, there is easy access to the A30 dual carriageway, providing a direct link with the cathedral and university city of Exeter with its M5 motorway, main line rail and international air connections.

DESCRIPTION

A most appealing, detached granite stone barn, believed to have been converted in around 2003/4. The barn is set within this popular Dartmoor village and in brief offers, an entrance hall with staircase leading to the first floor, there is a ground floor bathroom and fitted kitchen. The sitting room offers a front aspect and a modern wood burning stove. Whilst on the first floor, a spacious landing serves two bedrooms. A particular feature of the barn is the quiet location and outside space and buildings. These include a detached stone barn suitable for a variety of different uses. Set above the barn are attractive areas of predominantly wooded garden and a large agricultural barn for those seeking a workshop, storage or similar.
