

Ansell Road, Dorking

£400,000

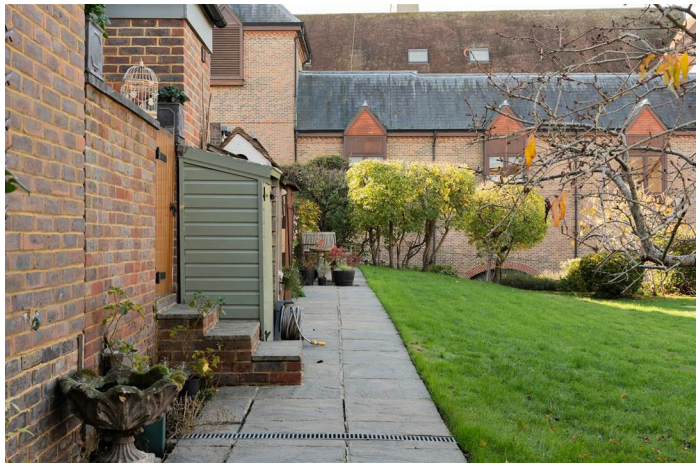

A cottage with charm and character right in the heart of Dorking Town Centre

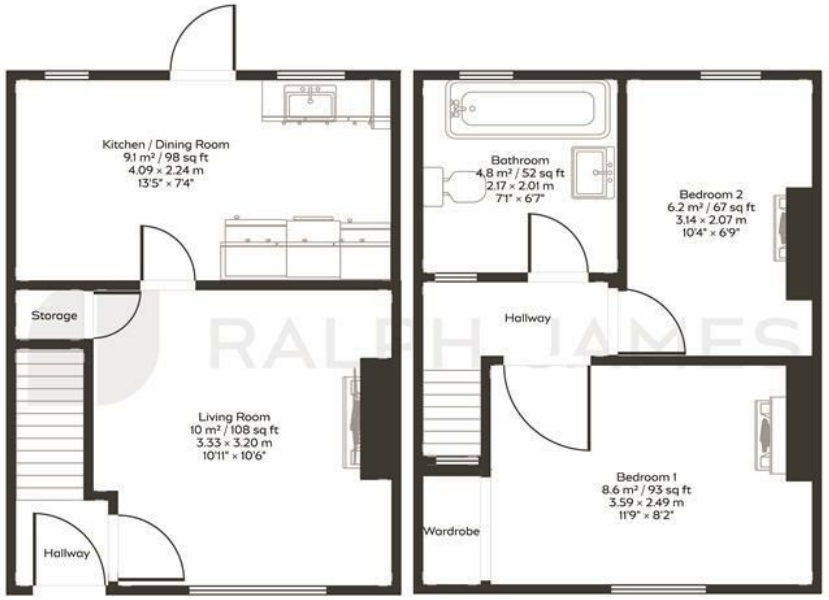

Situated in the heart of Dorking is this charming two-bedroom terraced house, a short walk from the town centre. This row of Victorian worker's cottages, built circa 1900, is perfectly formed, their distinctive façades characterised by a blend of two-toned brickwork. Internally, original pine floors, cast-iron fireplaces, stripped timber doors and painted brickwork add warmth and character to the house. Behind, a private courtyard garden opens to the village green, providing a wonderfully green retreat in the heart of the market town. Dorking Main station is a 15-minute walk, with rail links to London in under an hour.

At the rear of the house there is a private courtyard that can be accessed from the kitchen - On the back wall, a gate opens to a communal green area shared between the neighbouring houses.
