Offers Over £165,000

Fantastic opportunity to purchase this traditional detached property within the heart of the village. The property has been extended and upgraded over the years to provide the following accommodation: open plan modern fitted kitchen with breakfast bar dining area and a range of base and wall units, integrated electric hob, electric oven, extractor, fridge and dishwasher, there is a cosy lounge area featuring a dual aspect and open fireplace. There are three double bedrooms and a generous single bedroom. A neutral family bathroom completes this flexible home. This property would benefit from some further upgrading and remedial works but has excellent potential and charm. This home would suit a wide range of potential purchaser including families, investors and those seeking a change of lifestyle.
