

Newly constructed in 2011, this two double bedroom end terrace cottage is set in a hugely popular and convenient position on the north side of Sevenoaks, opposite the Aldi superstore and within walking distance of the Sainsbury's superstore, as well as Bat and Ball main line rail station (0.6 miles). A wider array of all social and shopping facilities are on offer close by at Sevenoaks High Street as is the fast and frequent mainline rail service to London Bridge / Charing Cross in less than thirty minutes.

Considered to be generously proportioned and beautifully presented throughout, the accommodation comprises entrance porch, ground floor wc, dual aspect sitting room, a dining room which shares a social open plan relationship with the superb fitted kitchen, two first floor double bedrooms and the family bathroom. There is an abundance of residents parking to the front as well as a paved parking space that doubles as the garden patio and accessible via adjustment to the fence within the well maintained private garden which contains a newly built garden office finished to a high specification. Built to a larger than usual design for the road, this cottage is thought to make an ideal first time purchase or investment purchase and as such your early internal inspection comes highly recommended.
