DESCRIPTION

A deceptively spacious period cottage offering characterful accommodation with three double bedrooms, 2 reception rooms and delightful gardens. Recently repainted throughout, the property retains a wealth of charming period features including slate flooring, exposed beams, feature fireplaces and a wood-burning stove set within a raised fireplace.

The cottage offers well-balanced accommodation arranged over two floors, with an appealing blend of character and modern convenience. Of particular note are the beautifully landscaped tiered gardens which rise behind the property and culminate in an elevated seating area enjoying stunning sea and coastal vistas. Offered to the market with no onward chain, the property would suit those seeking either a permanent residence, coastal retreat or holiday home within this highly regarded part of North Cornwall. An internal inspection is highly recommended to fully appreciate both the accommodation and setting on offer.

ACCOMMODATION

An entrance door opens into the welcoming living room, a particularly spacious reception area enjoying a wealth of character with slate flooring, exposed ceiling beams and a raised fireplace housing a wood-burning stove. A separate formal dining room provides an excellent entertaining space and features an attractive fireplace together with further period detailing. The kitchen has been fitted with a modern range of units incorporating built-in appliances and offers ample workspace and storage.

An exposed staircase rises to the first floor landing, from where two generous double bedrooms are positioned to the front elevation, both taking full advantage of the superb coastal and sea views. A third double bedroom lies to the rear and is currently utilised for storage. The accommodation is served by a family bathroom. The property benefits from uPVC double glazed windows throughout, whilst heating and hot water are provided by an LP gas fired Worcester Bosch boiler.

OUTSIDE

One of the principal features of the property is the delightful tiered rear garden, thoughtfully arranged over several levels to create a variety of seating and entertaining areas designed to enjoy the sunny aspect and coastal surroundings.

Immediately adjoining the cottage are attractive patio terraces, ideal for alfresco dining, whilst the gardens are interspersed with colourful and well-established planting together with a pond feature. Steps rise through the gardens to an upper level of lawn where there is a useful garden shed and, beyond, a superb raised seating area commanding breath-taking far-reaching views towards the coastline and sea.
