Property Description

Nestled on a quiet and friendly street, this well-presented one-bedroom mobile home offers a comfortable and manageable living space perfectly suited for retiring couples or single older residents seeking tranquillity and convenience.

Inside, you'll find a welcoming lounge area, ideal for unwinding or entertaining a few guests. The kitchen is practical and well-laid-out, offering all the essentials for easy daily living. The main double bedroom provides a cosy and restful retreat, while an additional box bedroom offers excellent flexibility. A clean and functional bathroom completes the indoor layout, offering everything needed for comfortable day-to-day living.

Outside, the home benefits from driveway parking for convenient access and two storage sheds—ideal for tools, garden equipment, seasonal items, or additional hobbies.

The peaceful surroundings and low-traffic location add to the appeal for anyone looking to enjoy a slower, more relaxed lifestyle. This lovely property is practical, low-maintenance, and perfectly suited to those seeking a calm and comfortable place to call home.

"Please note that the AML fee covers the cost of carrying out the required identity and anti-money laundering checks. Once these checks have been completed, the fee cannot be refunded, even if the property purchase does not go ahead."

Agents Note

There are a number of obligations on both sellers and buyers when completing the process for purchasing a park home. Sites often have requirements specific to the purchase and to 'the site' in general, which could include paying the site owners commission. Intending purchasers should satisfy themselves about any such requirements including any specific restrictions on occupancy or residential use of the home.

Purchasers are strongly advised to take advice from a solicitor. Guidance can be sought from Park homes - GOV.UK (www.gov.uk)
