Introducing The Foxglove, a stylish three-bedroom semi-detached home offering flexible living across three well-designed floors. The ground floor features a contemporary front kitchen and a spacious open-plan dining and family room, complete with French doors that open to the garden, filling the space with natural light.

A striking vaulted ceiling skylight adds to the sense of openness and modern elegance. On the first floor, two comfortable bedrooms provide a calming retreat, with bedroom one benefiting from a fitted wardrobe and en suite, alongside a modern family bathroom serving bedroom three. The second floor offers exceptional versatility, with bedroom two accompanied by its own shower room and an adjoining study, perfect for home working, hobbies or a peaceful reading space. With Freehold tenure, EPC Rating B, Council Tax Band E and a £378.00 annual service charge, this home combines practicality, efficiency and style.

Completing the property are two parking spaces and, on selected plots, the added benefit of a car port. The Foxglove is a home designed to adapt to modern lifestyles—enquire today to make it yours. A short stroll takes you to Angmering's historic square with roots back to the Bronze Age, historic homes, and a welcoming square alongside independent shops and eateries such as The Spotted Cow, Bentley's Café, and Juna Home and Garden, nearby Rustington offers larger retail options including Next, Dunelm, Aldi, Asda, and Sainsbury's. Leisure is well catered for with golf, sailing, and Lanes Health Club close by. South of the A27, the village gives easy access to Worthing, Arundel, Bognor, and Chichester, while the mainline station connects directly to Gatwick and London Victoria - blending historic charm with modern convenience.
