£1,700 Per Month

“

Available ASAP, unfurnished and a private drive for one car is present, this house will be sure to fly off the lettings market, so please do get in touch for a viewing!

Set on the ever-popular Garlands Road, just moments from the heart of Redhill, this charming two bedroom period end of terrace home offers a fantastic blend of character and convenience,

Entering through the front door, into the living room, you are hit by light bouncing off of the original floorboards, pouring in from the bay window to the front. Although capped, a period fireplace is present completing a great well-proportioned room.

To the rear, you have a transformed kitchen with ample of cupboard storage and all the white goods included such as Dishwasher, Washing Machine and Double Fridge Freezer. Underneath the stairs is a great space perfect for a larder. Leading on from the kitchen is the modern bathroom and access to the rear decked outside space, with side return.

Upstairs are two equal-sized bedrooms with the ever popular originally painted floorboards, built-in storage in both and plenty of light with large windows in each room. Both rooms have period fireplaces.

Available ASAP, unfurnished and a private drive for one car is present, this house will be sure to fly off the lettings market, so please do get in touch for a viewing!
