Chetwynd Road, NW5

The property is in good condition throughout and has been a much loved family home, offering a comfortable balance of period features and practical living space.

The ground floor provides a generous double reception room with direct access to the garden, alongside a separate kitchen and dining area.

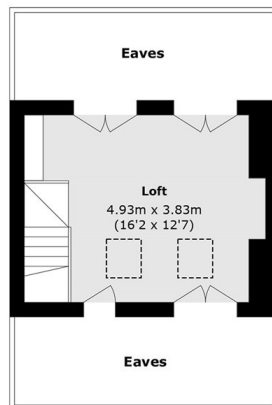

The first and second floors provide three well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom, while the loft space offers useful additional storage. Period fireplaces, high ceilings and original features add to the character of the house, with scope for a new owner to make it their own.
