SITUATION

The property sits within the heart of the picturesque Dartmoor village of Throwleigh. The village itself has an historic 15th century church, whilst in the nearby hamlet of Wonson, there is the well known local inn, the Northmore Arms and Village Hall. From the village there are many footpaths leading into the surrounding countryside and woodlands and up onto the high moor with many opportunities for riding, walking and outdoor pursuits. The popular Dartmoor town of Chagford is some three miles away offering a good range of day to day and specialised independent shops, as well as a primary school, Montessori nursery, public houses and hotel, a health clinic, dentist and library. The town of Okehampton offers a wider range of shops, services, education and recreational facilities. From Throwleigh, there is easy access to the A30 dual carriageway, providing a direct link with the cathedral and university city of Exeter with its M5 motorway, main line rail and international air connections.

DESCRIPTION

This lovely semi-detached cottage, is of stone construction under a pitched roof, nicely located within the popular Dartmoor Village of Throwleigh. The cottage is deceptively spacious and offers a generous floor area for a two bedroom home. The accommodation opens with a large, welcoming entrance hall leading through to a generous sitting room with woodburning stove, a well fitted kitchen/dining room, utility area and cloakroom. On the first floor, the notably spacious landing offers an obvious opportunity to be reinstated as a third bedroom, subject to the necessary consents or a generous study area. There are two large bedrooms, a shower area and bathroom. Outside, the property is complemented by well-tended gardens, a single garage, and attractive views across the surrounding Devon countryside to the rear and Church from the front elevation. Offered to the market with no forward chain, the property represents an ideal opportunity for those seeking a principal residence, country retreat, or downsizing move with exciting scope for personalisation.
