The property lies in the heart of the village of Cawsand. The twin villages of Kingsand and Cawsand are set on the Rame Peninsula and has an abundance of fascinating history. Cawsand especially had much involvement with smuggling in the 1700's, where thousands of casks of spirits were landed here by a fleet of over 50 smuggling vessels and the old pilchard cellars can still be seen on the shoreline. The villages are equipped with a variety of local shops, pubs and restaurants, together with a sailing club and other facilities. The Rame Peninsula is relatively little known, often known as Cornwall's forgotten corner. This is an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty with quiet secluded beaches, magnificent scenery and spectacular walks along the South West Coastal Path. The Mount Edgcumbe Park, an 800 acre area of coastal woodland and open hillsides, is possibly one of the most beautiful and varied locations of the Westcountry, punctuated with its villages of Millbrook, Kingsand, Cawsand, St John and Craffhole.

Seamew is a delightful, terraced cottage situated in the heart of the favourable village of Cawsand and just a stones throw from the amenities. This charming property has been well maintained by the current Vendor, providing light and comfortable accommodation comprising of open plan living space with a modern fitted kitchen to the ground floor, stairs rise to the first floor landing providing access to an attractive shower room and two bedrooms, one double and one single. The second floor has a further double bedroom of good size with exposed beams and eaves storage.

There is no outside space or private parking. However, residents parking permits are available for on street parking within the village. There is no outside space at this property.
