£565,000

An exceptional brand-new detached family home of approximately 212 sq.m (2,281 sq.ft), positioned within a quiet cul-de-sac in the popular village of Sturton by Stow. Designed and constructed to a superb modern specification, the property combines contemporary style, generous living space, and outstanding energy efficiency, with an anticipated EPC rating of A.

This impressive home has been built with a strong focus on sustainability and comfort, solar panels with battery storage, underfloor heating throughout the ground floor, and high-performance insulation. Together, these features deliver exceptional energy efficiency, lower running costs, and an environmentally conscious lifestyle - all without compromising on luxury.

The entrance hall creates an immediate impression with its vaulted ceiling, Velux rooflights, and striking T-shaped staircase with glass balustrade. The porcelain tiled flooring flows seamlessly through to the open-plan kitchen, living, and dining area. At the heart of the home lies a stunning open-plan kitchen, living, and dining space with vaulted ceilings, bi-fold doors opening onto the rear garden, and porcelain tiled flooring with underfloor heating. The kitchen is beautifully appointed with Quartz work surfaces, a large central island with breakfast bar, and a full range of integrated appliances, including AEG oven, microwave, warming drawer, and induction hob with downdraught extractor, together with a full-height fridge, freezer, and wine cooler. The ground floor also includes a spacious lounge with sliding doors to the garden, utility room, cloakroom/WC, and plant room, along with two double bedrooms and a luxury family bathroom. The layout is flexible, with one of the ground-floor bedrooms equally suited as a family room or home office. Upstairs, a galleried landing overlooks the entrance hall and leads to two further double bedrooms, both featuring en-suite shower rooms.

Externally, the property is approached via sliding Iroko hardwood electric gates, opening onto a large block-paved driveway with access to an attached double garage. The enclosed rear garden includes a lawn, raised planters, and a generous paved patio, creating the perfect space for outdoor entertaining.

With solar generation and battery storage, and modern heating systems, this property offers the perfect balance of luxury, style, and low cost living.
