A spacious detached chalet of about 1440sqft in this lovely quiet location within walking distance of Highcliffe St Mark's Primary School. The property has been well converted with up to five bedrooms if required and features a smart, open plan kitchen/living space to the rear.

Tucked away close to Chewton Common, the local shops at Walkford are also just around the corner. The living space is really generous and would suit a growing family- for the floor area and location, we believe it offers very good value for money.
