Hunters Estate Agents are delighted to bring to market this two-bedroom mid terrace home, located in a popular residential area close to the amenities of Penzance town centre. The accommodation is generously proportioned and offers excellent potential. While some areas would benefit from updating, the property has already seen significant improvements, including the installation of a contemporary kitchen and stylish shower room. Outside, a private rear courtyard with pedestrian access provides a pleasant and practical outdoor space. Combining character, potential and convenience, this appealing home is ready for its next chapter and is likely to attract a wide range of buyers, from first-time purchasers and young families to those seeking an investment opportunity.
