This versatile commercial and residential property is positioned beside Bangor Cathedral, at the gateway to the main High Street, an enviable location that benefits from a consistently high volume of foot traffic.

The ground floor features an established café/restaurant space, complete with a customer WC, ample storage, and a dedicated prep kitchen. The first floor offers additional commercial space, ideal for a yoga studio accommodating up to 15 people, a larger commercial kitchen, or extended dining/retail use.

Above the business areas, the well-appointed living accommodation includes three bedrooms, an office space, and a full bathroom with shower, bathtub, WC, and sink. The property provides generous storage throughout and boasts an open rooftop area to the rear, creating an attractive sun spot.

While the business itself is not included in the sale, all fixtures and fittings may be included subject to negotiation.

This is a flexible, multi-purpose property offering excellent commercial potential in a prime city-centre location, combined with comfortable on-site living.
