Where a 75% share is owned only service charge and buildings insurance is payable.

The Leasehold for the Elderly Scheme is for people who are 55 years or over allowing them to purchase usually a 70% share in the property. This scheme is aimed at assisting those who are finding their present property difficult to manage either physically or financially. Karbon Homes retains the remaining share in the property to ensure that when the property is sold that it is offered to someone who meets the criteria of the scheme.

Anyone wishing to live in the property must be age 55 years or over.

Under the terms of the lease the resident has already had an independent valuation The valuer is of the opinion that the current market value of the property is £135,000 realising £67,500 for the 50% share.

To qualify you must be purchasing a property as your only home and you may not qualify if you have a home to sell or have your name on a residential mortgage. You will need to have a proceedable offer on your existing property before you buy through the Shared Ownership scheme and you will need to provide information on the level of equity that you will receive from the sale.

Under the terms of the Lease the purchaser must not be purchasing in order to sub-let the property. This even applies to parents who are wishing to purchase for their son/daughter for example.

RENT PAYABLE

There are charges to be paid to Karbon homes in respect of the property i.e. service charge, rent, administration and buildings insurance and prospective purchasers must be made aware of these. The monthly charges are currently.

Rent
