Situation

The property offers a private and secluded feeling although only being a stones throw away from the traditional village of Harbertonford. The property is approximately 1 mile west of Harbertonford and the A381 Totnes to Kingsbridge Road and 1 mile south of the village of Harberton. The popular market town of Totnes is within 5 miles to the north-east.

The Land

The land extends in total to 1.43 acres (0.58 hectares) and offers uninterrupted views across the rolling countryside from the higher levels of the quarry. The quarry has areas of natural regeneration and historic faces with the quarry spanning across multiple levels.

The quarry is accessed from a council maintained public highway via double wooden gates, one being approximately 12'0 and the other approximately 3'0, there is a secondary access gateway along the eastern side of the southern boundary this being via a 12'0 metal gate. The initial stoned area immediately after either entrance offers a great space for variety uses including storage, recreation and offers parking for multiple cars and machinery. There are two storage containers currently on site providing space for storage. The quarry has a stoned track providing access to the various levels and the hidden quarry.

Consumer Protection from Unfair Trading Regulations 2008

- 1) These particulars are set out for the interested parties and purchasers as a guideline only. They are intended to give a fair description but not to constitute an offer or contract.
- 2) All descriptions, dimensions, distances, orientations and other statements/facts are given in good faith but should not be relied upon as being a statement or representation of facts.
- 3) Nothing in these particulars shall be deemed to be a statement that the property is in good condition or otherwise nor that any services are in good working order. The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. Interested applicants are advised to make their own enquiries and investigations before finalising their offer to purchase.
- 4) The photographs appearing in these sales brochures show only certain parts and aspects of the property at the time the photographs were taken. Aspects may have been changed since the photographs were taken and it should not be assumed that the property remains precisely as displayed in the photographs. Items shown in photographs are not included unless specifically mentioned within the sales particulars. They may however be available by separate negotiation.
- 5) Any area measurements or distances referred to herein are approximate only.
- 6) Where there is reference in these particulars to the fact that alterations have been carried out, or that a particular use is made of any part of the property, this is not intended to be a statement that any necessary planning, building regulations or other consents have been obtained and these matters must be verified by any intending purchaser.
- 7) Descriptions of a property are inevitably subjective and the descriptions contained herein are used in good faith as an opinion and not by way of statement of fact. If there are any points of particular importance that need clarifying before viewing please do not hesitate to contact this office.
- 8) References to the tenure of a property are based on information supplied by the seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A buyer is advised to obtain verification from a solicitor and before finalising their offer should make their own enquiries and investigations. Buyers should check the availability of any property and make an appointment to view before embarking on any journey to see a property.
