DESCRIPTION

A delightful period cottage occupying a central position within a charming row of three, situated in the heart of this sought-after Suffolk Heritage Coast village. Set slightly back from the road behind a small front garden the property presents attractive rendered and whitewashed elevations beneath traditional pantile-covered roof and offers comfortable, characterful accommodation ideally suited as a permanent home, coastal retreat or holiday property.

The glazed entrance door opens directly into an appealing open-plan living room and kitchen, creating a wonderfully relaxed and sociable heart to the cottage. The room retains considerable period charm, with exposed timbers, oak flooring and an attractive brick open fireplace providing a natural focal point. The kitchen area is well equipped with a good range of storage and a useful woodblock breakfast bar, making excellent use of the available space.

A staircase rises from the living area to the first floor, with useful storage beneath. To the rear, a small lobby provides access to the garden via a traditional stable door and also leads to the bathroom, which is fitted with a panel bath with electric shower over, pedestal wash basin, WC and heated towel rail, together with an opaque double-glazed timber casement window.

The first floor provides two well-proportioned bedrooms. The rear bedroom benefits from a good range of fitted wardrobes, while the front bedroom has useful storage built into the space over the staircase. Outside, the rear garden includes a paved patio, providing a pleasant area for outdoor seating and entertaining.

The cottage benefits from electric night storage heating and offers a particularly appealing combination of period character, practical accommodation and an enviable village location, providing an excellent base from which to enjoy the beaches, countryside, villages and many attractions of the Suffolk Heritage Coast.
