Here you'll find a fantastic range of local amenities including the historic church, convenience shops, traditional pubs, a butcher's, and much more — all creating a welcoming community feel.

As you enter the property, you are greeted by a cosy and inviting front lounge, complete with a charming feature fireplace, providing the perfect space to relax and unwind. This flows through to the kitchen, which enjoys views over the rear garden and offers ample cupboard space along with the benefit of a large storage cupboard.
