Always a popular mews with buyers, we are delighted to bring this characterful house to the market. This unique house is beautifully maintained throughout and comprises spacious reception room, semi-open plan kitchen and a separate dining space to the first floor. Clever use of sky lights ensure the property is flooded with natural light. This home further benefits from a large bedroom to the rear of the ground floor that boasts a dressing area and en suite shower room, cloakroom and a good sized study that feasibly (subject to any required consents) could be turned into a second bedroom.

Bathurst Mews is renowned to be one of London's prettiest mews and is located moments from the artisan shops and cafes of Connaught Village and the green spaces of Hyde Park.
