LOCATION

The property is located to the north of Aylesbury town centre, with good road access towards the A41 north/M40 and south towards the M25. Open fields provide plenty of opportunities for dog walking. Local amenities include two primary schools, a secondary school, doctors' surgery, convenience stores, chemists, a pub restaurant and several children's playgrounds. Aylesbury Parkway Station is also conveniently located nearby and can be accessed directly on foot or by bicycle via the Waddesdon Greenway.

ACCOMMODATION

The property is accessed via its own front door, with stairs leading to the first floor. The area also provides access to the loft and houses a useful airing cupboard.

The living room is a comfortable space, offering ample room for a range of living and dining furniture.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of units and incorporates an inset electric hob, oven and cooker hood. There is also designated space for a fridge, washing machine and dishwasher, providing practical facilities for everyday living.

The double bedroom offers good space for bedroom furniture and benefits from natural light.

The fully tiled bathroom is fitted with an enclosed shower cubicle, WC, heated towel rail and wash basin with storage under.

Outside, the property benefits from a private gravelled rear garden, providing a low-maintenance outdoor space. The garden also features a summer house and rear access leading directly to the property's off-road parking space. To the front is a shared front garden.

Overall, this is a well presented maisonette offering comfortable accommodation, private outdoor space and convenient parking, all within a popular residential setting close to a good range of everyday amenities, schools and green spaces.
