Granville is a handsome, double fronted, period residence with a brick facade and striking bay windows. Believed to have been constructed in circa 1907, the residence offers a wealth of period features from ornate door architraves and picture rails to decorative fireplaces and a cast iron decorative Tellers & Rogers range in the breakfast room.

Of generous proportions the residence is arranged over three floors with many rooms, including the principal living rooms and master bedrooms having magnificent views across Coverack bay and out to the open sea beyond.

Highlights include a welcoming sitting room with a wood burning stove and a wonderful outlook towards the bay, a dining room with decorative fireplace and sea views and the master bedrooms, with bay windows, enjoying an enviable marine outlook.

Outside a decked sun terrace and patio area provide the perfect place in which to sit out and enjoy the sunny aspect and panoramic views across Coverack bay and beyond.

Further steps rise beyond the terraced garden and out towards Perprean Cove and the adjacent coast path.

The accommodation comprises, on the ground floor, an entrance hall, dining room, sitting room, breakfast room, kitchen, utility room, cloak room and side hallway.

On the first floor are three bedrooms, a further bedroom four/office, cloakroom and a family shower room, whilst on the second floor there is a fifth bedroom and further bedroom/store room.

The residence benefits from double glazing, oil fired central heating and solar panels.

Coverack itself is a Cornish fishing village situated on the Lizard Peninsula, which has been designated as an area of outstanding natural beauty. The Cove itself has a lovely sandy beach which is a popular centre for water sports that include windsurfing, stand-up paddle boarding, sailing and diving. There is an attractive harbour from which a small fleet of traditional fishing boats operate and land their daily catch. There is a public house, restaurants, a shop selling local produce and a primary school.

St Keverne village is a short drive away and has a number of shops, including a butcher's and doctors surgery whilst comprehensive schooling can be found in the nearby village of Mullion. The bustling market town of Helston which has more extensive amenities including national stores and supermarkets, is some eight miles distant.
