This impressive, detached family home offers generously proportioned and versatile accommodation, ideally situated within a short walk of the seafront and town centre. Perfectly suited to modern family living, the property combines spacious reception areas with flexible bedroom arrangements across both floors.

The welcoming sitting room provides an excellent space for relaxing and entertaining, while the separate dining room is ideal for family gatherings and formal occasions. An additional office/study offers the perfect solution for those working from home.

Designed with multi-generational living in mind, the property benefits from bedrooms and bathrooms on both the ground and first floors, providing flexibility and convenience for a variety of family needs. A particular feature of the home is the first-floor sunroom, perfectly positioned to enjoy the delightful sea views and an abundance of natural light.

Externally, the property enjoys an enclosed rear garden, ideal for children, pets, or outdoor entertaining, together with a driveway providing off-road parking and a garage for additional storage or vehicle space.

A superb opportunity to acquire a spacious coastal home in a highly convenient and sought-after location.

The home has been lovingly maintained and is ready to move into, whilst still offering opportunities for modernisation and personalisation if desired.

Hunstanton

A VICTORIAN TOWN WITH WORLD-FAMOUS CLIFFS

Who wouldn't want a place by the sea? Hunstanton, a traditional, unspoilt coastal town, is perfect for a beach walk and a fish and chip supper. For residents, this Victorian gem offers even more.

Founded in 1846 by Henry Le Strange as a Victorian Gothic bathing resort, Hunstanton thrived with the railway from King's Lynn, becoming a top day-trip destination. Today, holidaymakers flock to Searles Leisure Resort, enjoy boat trips on the Wash Monster, fairground rides, and traditional arcades. The Princess Theatre, renamed in the 80s for Lady Diana Spencer, hosts live performances, films, and seasonal pantos. Golf enthusiasts can play mini-golf, pitch & putt, and the renowned Links course in Old Hunstanton.

Facing west across The Wash, "Sunny Hunny" is famous for its sunsets. Summer evenings are perfect for watching the sun set from the green, beach, or Victorian squares. Impressive Victorian and Edwardian properties line these squares, alongside contemporary homes, apartments, and senior living accommodations. Education options include a primary and secondary school (Smithdon High, a Grade II listed building), and Glebe House School, a co-educational prep school. Amenities feature a GP surgery, post office, leisure pool, and gym at The Oasis, overlooking the sea.

Local shopping includes Tesco, Sainsbury's, and a Lidl nearby in Heacham, along with a fantastic local greengrocer and award-winning deli. Dining options range from full English breakfasts to afternoon tea at Berni Beans and relaxing at wine bar Chives.

Hunstanton attracts young families, professionals, and retirees seeking a slower pace of life. Discover why this charming town is the perfect coastal retreat.
