General Remarks

Cae Garreg occupies an enviable position on the edge of the charming village of Trefeglwys, enjoying a peaceful setting with far-reaching views along the surrounding valley—an outstanding feature of the property.

The nearby village of Caersws, just a short drive away, provides a convenient range of local shops and amenities, together with a mainline railway station offering direct connections to Shrewsbury and Aberystwyth. Within Trefeglwys itself, a village shop and public house are within easy walking distance, while a primary school is located at the end of the road, making the property particularly well suited for families.

Approximately 3 miles away lies the historic market town of Llanidloes, offering a wider selection of independent shops, cafés, and restaurants, along with a welcoming community atmosphere. The area is renowned for its outdoor lifestyle, with nearby attractions including the scenic Clywedog Reservoir—popular for sailing and fishing—as well as the Hafren Forest, ideal for walking, cycling, and nature pursuits.

For those seeking access to the coast, the vibrant seaside town of Aberystwyth is within approximately 35 miles, providing a comprehensive range of cultural, educational, and leisure facilities.

Cae Garreg combines the tranquillity of rural living with excellent accessibility to local amenities and some of Mid Wales' most celebrated landscapes.

Accommodation The property is entered via an impressive, light-filled reception hall, creating an immediate sense of space and quality. A bespoke oak turned staircase rises to a striking galleried landing above, where rooflights flood the area with natural light. The hall further benefits from a guest cloakroom/WC, while attractive oak flooring flows seamlessly throughout the principal ground floor living spaces. An oak door leads through to the full-length sitting full-length sitting room, a beautifully proportioned space featuring French doors opening onto a rear patio—ideal for outdoor entertaining. The accommodation flows effortlessly into a generous dining room, perfectly suited to both formal and informal gatherings. A particular highlight of the home is the delightful garden room, accessed from the dining area. With windows to three elevations, this exceptional space enjoys uninterrupted views over the gardens, adjoining pony paddock and the surrounding valley beyond, offering a highly picturesque setting. Double doors from the dining room open into a substantial kitchen/breakfast room, creating a superb open-plan arrangement, perfectly designed for modern family living and entertaining on a larger scale.

The kitchen is fitted with a generous range of shaker-style units, complemented by a central island, creating both a practical workspace and an informal gathering point. Integrated appliances include a hob, oven, microwave and dishwasher, all by Hotpoint, providing a well-equipped and functional culinary setting. A useful utility/boot room is located off the kitchen, offering additional storage and practicality for everyday living. This space also provides direct access to the garden, together with a further WC-particularly convenient for outdoor activities. The oil-fired boiler is also housed here..

The first floor offers well-balanced and generously proportioned accommodation, comprising five double bedrooms, all enjoying pleasant aspects over the surrounding countryside.

The principal bedroom suite benefits from a walk-in dressing room and a well-appointed en suite shower room, creating a private and luxurious retreat. Bedroom two also features a spacious en suite, making it ideal for guests or older family members. The remaining bedrooms are served by a stylish family bathroom, fitted with a dual-ended bath and a large walk-in shower, providing both comfort and practicality for modern family living.

Externally the property has a generous gravelled parking area with driveway leading to the rear paddock, large twin garage with electric roller shutter doors, wrap around lawns and two paved seating / entertaining areas to enjoy the setting.
