Limetree Cottage

Bucklesham, Ipswich, IP10 0BW

Guide price £285,000

Description

A charming Suffolk-pink cottage in Bucklesham, extended to combine period character with bright, open-plan living.

To the front, a cosy dining room with exposed beams sits in the original cottage. Beyond this, a well-fitted kitchen with modern units and oak effect worktops opens into a vaulted living space, with bi-fold doors leading out to the garden. Upstairs there are two double bedrooms both benefitting from fitted wardrobes.

Location

The village of Bucklesham has a popular primary school and is conveniently positioned just off the A14, five miles east of Ipswich and seven miles northwest of Felixstowe. Both towns offer a wide range of shopping and recreational facilities. Woodbridge town centre is six and half miles north of the village and offers schooling for all age groups in both the public and private sector.

For the sailing and golf enthusiasts, facilities are just a short drive away including Levington marina and three excellent golf courses; Purdis, Woodbridge and Felixstowe Ferry.

Outside and gardens

The rear garden is fully enclosed by timber fencing and sits immediately off the vaulted living space, so the bi-fold doors open straight onto a brick-paved patio.

The patio is the main outdoor living area. It has room for a corner sofa and low table, making it well suited to sitting out and entertaining. A planted border and pots soften the edge of the paving, with ornamental grasses and flowering shrubs adding colour. Beyond the patio is a lawn, with a timber shed in the far corner for storage and a rotary dryer for practical use. Mature trees rise behind the fence, giving a leafy backdrop and a sense of privacy.

Services

We understands mains electric, water and drainage are connected to the property. There is oil fired central heating.
