The property lies in the well-regarded village of Chillington with a village shop, post office and health care centre. The village of Stokenham is just over one mile away, where you will find the hugely popular Stokenham primary school which has a very good reputation, along with a church, farm shop, cafe and The Tap House at Stokeley. Kingsbridge is situated four miles to the west, at the head of the Salcombe estuary and offers an excellent range of independent shops, supermarkets and local facilities including a health centre/cottage hospital as well as a secondary school and sports centre.

Seamstress Cottage is deceptively spacious and has well-presented accommodation comprising in brief: entrance hall with stairs to the first floor, door to a downstairs cloakroom/utility room, triple aspect sitting/dining room with fireplace, door to side garden and French doors to the rear garden. The kitchen/breakfast room also has triple aspect windows and fitted with a range of units and in addition a breakfast bar. The first-floor landing leads to the family bathroom and three double bedrooms (master bedroom with En-suite shower room). External benefits include private driveway to the parking area with access to a large workshop and garage. The attractive, south facing garden has a private patio seating area and a beautifully planted raised border.

Services : Mains drainage, electricity & water.
Heating air source heat pump - radiators.
Solar panels - feed in tariff - installed 2021.
Broadband Sky is currently at the property.
