For Sale By Private Treaty

This is an attractive three/four-bedroom family home, (128 sq. m approx.) well situated on this most popular residential road in the heart of Churchtown, with the benefit of a lovely west facing rear garden. No 27 has been extended and remodelled over the years to suit a family's changing needs. The original garage has been reconfigured and extended to the front providing a spacious and adaptable room. The pitched roof extends across the front entrance, giving a covered porch which greatly enhances the front elevation of the property. To the rear an invaluable W.C./Utility room has been added -perfect for modern day family living. The accommodation is bright and airy, not only due to its orientation but because of its generous proportions, large windows and high ceilings. This much-loved home is presented in excellent decorative order - ready and waiting for its new owners and yet still offers further potential to extend if so required (subject to P.P.)

The well-appointed accommodation comprises; entrance hall, living room interconnecting to the dining room, adaptable family room/bedroom four, kitchen/ breakfast room and W.C./ utility room at ground floor level. At first floor there are three bedrooms, two good doubles, a roomy single and a contemporary bathroom completes the picture.

There is an enviable range of facilities immediately at hand with excellent local shopping at Churchtown, with the property also being just minutes from Dundrum Town Centre, and close to Rathgar, Milltown, and Rathfarnham. The Castle and Milltown Golf Clubs are nearby as is Bushy Park and leisurely walks along the river Dodder linking Orwell and Dartry Parks. There is an excellent choice of well-established junior and senior schools within easy reach and UCD Belfield is an easy cycle away. The LUAS at Windy Arbour/Dundrum and regular bus routes provide easy access to the city and beyond.
