Summary

Nestled in a highly sought after cul-de-sac just off Palace Road in the historic cathedral city of Ripon, this extended four bedroom semi detached bungalow offers spacious and versatile accommodation ideal for family living or those seeking generous single level space.

The property opens into a particularly large and welcoming entrance hall, setting the tone for the generous proportions throughout. Adjacent to the kitchen is a dedicated dining room, ideal for everyday family meals.

There are four well proportioned bedrooms, offering flexibility for guest accommodation, a home office or hobbies, and a modern shower room completes the internal layout.

Externally, the home is set within mature and beautifully maintained gardens to both the front and rear, laid mainly to lawn with established planting, a patio area perfect for outdoor dining, and a garden shed.
