If you've dreamt of owning a picture-perfect Devon cottage in one of the county's most desirable villages, Cobblestones could be exactly what you've been waiting for.

Positioned in the heart of Brampford Speke, just four miles from Exeter, this beautiful Grade II Listed thatched cottage combines timeless character with everyday practicality. Surrounded by rolling countryside and close to the River Exe, the village is one of Mid Devon's hidden gems, offering a thriving community, popular village pub, primary school and wonderful walks straight from the doorstep.

Inside, the cottage is full of the charm you'd hope to find. Exposed beams, an impressive inglenook fireplace with wood-burning stove and an abundance of original features create a warm and welcoming home that's full of personality.

The living room flows naturally into a study/bedroom at the rear, a flexible room to use as required, making it ideal for everyday life. The refitted kitchen offers a light, more contemporary feel whilst remaining entirely in keeping with the age of the property. Complete with an Aga, modern units and a dining area to the far end, it's a lovely room to spend time in, whilst the adjoining cloakroom adds welcome practicality.

Upstairs are two generous double bedrooms together with a stylishly refitted family bathroom.

Whilst the cottage is ready to enjoy from day one, it also offers exciting potential for the future. Planning permission was granted by East Devon District Council in May 2025 (Ref: 24/2483/FUL) to create a more open ground floor by linking the living room and kitchen across the rear, and creating a true third bedroom with ensuite on the first floor. It gives buyers the rare opportunity to enjoy the cottage exactly as it is today whilst having the option to create additional space in the years ahead.

Outside is another real highlight. Immediately behind the cottage is a private courtyard, perfect for outdoor dining, leading through (across the parking areas) to beautifully established gardens that feel wonderfully secluded. Mature trees, colourful planting and generous lawns provide plenty of room to relax, whilst the summer house offers an ideal reading room, studio or peaceful retreat away from the house.

The property also benefits from something that's often hard to find with period cottages: a garage and private parking. Please note that to get to the remaining garden, you do cross over neighbouring land (drive width) with a right of way.

Whether you're looking for a full-time home, a weekend retreat or simply somewhere with genuine character in an exceptional village setting, Cobblestones is a cottage that's easy to fall in love with. The approved planning permission simply makes an already special home even more appealing.
