Main Bungalow

Approved planning permission to convert Nissan Huts into further Residential dwelling

Self contained annexe

Gated Driveway via two access points

Discover a remarkable opportunity in Great Bardfield with this beautifully presented, detached bungalow, set within a substantial plot exceeding 10 acres.

Accessed via a secure, gated entrance, this property offers a peaceful and private lifestyle. The bungalow features three comfortable bedrooms, two well-appointed bathrooms, and two versatile reception rooms, providing ample space for relaxation and entertaining.

Beyond the main residence, the extensive grounds include self-contained outbuildings, offering potential for various uses, such as an Air B&B, subject to planning permission.

A unique feature of this property is the approved planning permission for the conversion of two Nissan Huts, presenting an exciting development prospect within the expansive acreage. The works have been activated so there is no timeframe restriction applying.

Situated in a sought-after location, this property combines spacious living with significant development potential in a desirable village setting.
