EPC:E

Asking Price £359,950

Burwell is situated in pleasant countryside approximately eleven miles north east of the university city of Cambridge and some four and a half miles from the horse racing town of Newmarket. The village contains an interesting variety of properties ranging from period cottages to modern family houses and there is an excellent range of facilities including a primary school, doctors' surgery, dentist, various shops catering for everyday requirements, a church, public houses and a regular bus service. Burwell is particularly well located with good access to the A14 dual carriageway which interconnects with many of the regions traffic routes, principally the M11 motorway to London and the A11 to the east. There is a regular train service from Newmarket to Cambridge and Cambridge North into London Liverpool Street and King Cross Stations.

This rather special 2/3 bedroom cottage of character is centrally located in the ever popular village of Burwell. Oozing with charm, featuring exposed brickwork, timber beams and an open fireplace. Set within striking distance of excellent village shops and local amenities. The delightful home benefits from a gas fired radiator heating system, many original period features, and viewing is a must to really appreciate this stunning home.
