Doors connects through to the kitchen and hallway, making this area ideal for entertaining and modern family life.

The gardens

To the rear, the enclosed garden creates an inviting outdoor retreat. A central lawn is flanked by paved patios that offer space for seating and alfresco dining. A gated rear access opens to the allocated parking space. The property is approached through a picket gate into a deep front garden where a paved path leads through lawns and established shrubs. Mature hedging provides a green backdrop and a sense of seclusion.

The parking

A generous communal area provides the off-road allocated parking space, accessed directly from the rear of the property for everyday convenience. Gated access leads through to the rear garden, ensuring a practical connection between parking and the home.
